Newry Woman wins UK Construction Award

SUZANNA Hall (pictured), has picked up a national award at the 20th Construction Marketing Awards (CMAS) in London being recognised as 'Young Marketer of the Year'.

The UK CMA's are highly regarded as a measure of excellence in construction marketing and are supported by the Construction Industry Training Board (CITB) and Construction Industry Group (CIM).

Suzanna is the owner and founder of Marketing Agency - If Consulting & Marketing. Suzanna set up If Consulting & Marketing four years ago aged just 25 and now works with some of the leading construction and engineering companies in Northern Ireland.

Speaking about the awards Suzanna comments "I am honoured to be recognised at this level and win such a prestigious award against huge competition. In my category there was a PLC so to be able to compete at this level is a dream come true."

Suzanna was the only person from Northern Ireland to make the shortlist in what the judges deemed 'the largest and toughest set of entries they had seen before'.

The judges were all industry experts in the construction field and commented -

"Suzanna has delivered fantastic results through consistent innovation and drive, helping bring recognition and business to her clients. Her passion, determination and a genuine love for the industry has helped her drive peak performance."

Suzanna comments "I really love the industry. Construction is moving at such a rate it is really exciting to right at the heart of such a fast paced industry. It is great to be part of each of my client's journeys and see them succeed and grow".
